Rule 28: PIHA BOARD MEMBER SOCIAL MEDIA USAGE POLICY

a. Purpose & Scope

This policy provides guidelines for PIHA board members regarding their use of social media, both on official organizational accounts and on personal accounts when discussing matters associated with PIHA. Its purpose is to ensure that board members' online activities reflect positively on the organization, uphold its mission and values, protect confidential information, and comply with legal requirements.

b. Usage of Official Organization Social Media Accounts

1. Authorized Access Only: Only board members, explicitly authorized by the PIHA Board President and Communications Chair, may post on official PIHA social media accounts.
2. No Unauthorized Endorsements: Official accounts shall not endorse political candidates, commercial products, or services unless explicitly approved by the Board of Directors (BOD) and legally permissible for a 501(c)(7) organization.

c. Usage of Personal Social Media Accounts

While board members may have personal social media accounts, the board members' role carries unique responsibilities due to their position on the PIHA board.

1. Speaking as an Individual vs. Board Member:
 - Unless explicitly authorized by the full Board of Directors to speak on behalf of the organization, board members shall make it clear that their personal posts reflect their individual views and not those of PIHA.
 - Use of PIHA logo or other identification on personal accounts is not permitted.
2. Content Restrictions for Personal Accounts:
 - Confidential Information: Absolutely no disclosure of confidential board discussions, donor data, member information, or internal financial matters shall be permitted on personal social media accounts.
 - Controversial Topics: Exercise extreme caution and, ideally, avoid engaging in highly polarizing political or social debates on social media that could alienate donors, volunteers, or the PIHA community, and potentially harm PIHA's reputation or tax-exempt status.
 - Complaints/Grievances: Do not use social media to air grievances about the organization, staff, other board members, or operations. Direct such concerns through appropriate internal channels.

- Disparaging Remarks: Do not make belittling or defamatory remarks about PIHA, its staff, volunteers, other board members, partners, or beneficiaries on social media.

3. Engagement Guidelines:

- Responding to Public Inquiries/Criticism: If a question or criticism about PIHA arises on your personal social media, do not engage in a debate. Instead, direct the individual to the official channels. Inform the PIHA Board President and Executive Director about significant inquiries or negative comments.
- Interacting with Board Discussions: Do not use social media to deliberate on or vote on board matters. All formal board discussions and decisions must occur in official board meetings, consistent with parliamentary procedure. Any use of social media to discuss formal board discussions or decisions are not allowed and will be considered a violation of this policy.
- Endorsement of Candidates/Products: Avoid endorsing political candidates or specific commercial products/companies from your personal account in a way that implies PIHA's endorsement, especially if it could jeopardize the non-profit's 501(c)(7) status.

d. Monitoring and Compliance

1. Reporting Concerns: Board members should report any concerns about social media content that may violate this policy to the PIHA Board President or Communications Chair.
2. Policy Review: This policy will be reviewed periodically by the Rules Committee to ensure it remains relevant and effective.

Remaining board members must, by majority vote, give approval.
- d. MINUTES OF THE BOARD MEETING. Records of all actions of the board will be set forth in the minutes of the meeting. Minutes will be kept on file as the official record of the Presque Isle Harbor Association board. The office of Secretary of the Board will be custodian of the minutes. However, it is vital that all members of the board and the executive be able to fully participate in the discussions and deliberations, so minutes will be recorded in writing during each meeting by an appointee of the Board.
